Recognition is one of the most powerful things a leader can do with their organization. Every time I talk with a successful leader, I ask them what kept them going. Their response...? "The recognition for doing a good job and the praise for helping other people succeed." Don't forget how important it is to recognize your leaders for their hard work.

You will succeed! Thanks for joining us in these efforts!

ISAGENIX VICE PRESIDENT OF SALES

New Millionaires

One enjoyed a career on Broadway and the other gave up on the 9-to-5 office job. Both were searching for a flexible answer to creating incomes for their futures. That's when these two, newly minted Isagenix Millionaires discovered Isagenix. Congratulations, Deborah and Udana, on achieving your goals!

Before network marketing, I was designing software systems in the late 80s and early 90s. Tired of the 60-80 hour workweek, I quit and decided to go on a three-month backpacking expedition across Australia and New Zealand to rethink my options.

Upon returning to Calgary with the intention of pursuing my MBA or Consulting, I met a woman who introduced me to the world of network marketing. What appealed to me right away was the idea of teamwork, getting paid what you were worth and time freedom.

Immediately, I embraced the concept and went to work part-time for a nutritional network marketing company while consulting. I enjoyed the industry so much that in 1995, after four years of working part-time, I was able to leave consulting and pursue my business in network marketing full time.

After moving to Toronto in 2003 I came across Isagenix. I was looking for a solid company that had all the right pieces: great products, excellent management, capital and a lucrative compensation plan with the right timing.

Since joining Isagenix, my team has grown internationally. I currently have six Isagenix Millionaires on my team.

As for becoming one of the newest millionaires it took a moment for the news to truly sink in. It is incredibly satisfying especially knowing my success is a result of many team members also experiencing success. I finally found my home and look forward to a long career with Isagenix.

At a time when most people were looking forward to retiring and traveling the world, I was looking for a job.

I was in my 50s, single and had reached the middle of an amazing and adventurous life of singing and dancing on Broadway when I realized I had forgotten to save money. It was a really rude awakening.

The stress of being broke was debilitating. I was thinking more about not having money than anything else; it was consuming my life. One night, I was sitting at my desk and realized that my body was breaking down because of it. I knew I wouldn't be able to last much longer unless I made some dramatic changes. So, I started working odd jobs just to make ends meet.

As I was looking for a weight-loss solution, I discovered Isagenix® and the power of network marketing.

I had a passion for the product, the company mission, and for showing others how to make money in network marketing. It was a true blessing to no longer worry about money. My paycheck is a direct reflection of the personal growth that is taking place in my life.

Isagenix has transformed my life in every possible way—from my health, energy and finances, to my lifestyle, friends and community.

Now I'm singing and writing again, and this time I can easily pay for the stuff I need to support the creative process.

Thank you, Isagenix!

Increase your active rank to Star Consultant for two weeks out of the reporting month, grow your cycles, increase your new personally enrolled Associates and help them advance in rank and have the opportunity to be honored as a Millionaire in Action.

The Top 15 Millionaires in Action for the month will be recognized on IsaFYI.com and receive an invitation to our special Founders' Gala.

To obtain total monthly growth points we will track the following:

Personally-Enrolled Growth

- Earn a point for each new personally-enrolled active Associate on Autoship enrolled during the month.

Personally-Enrolled Rank Advancements Active

- Earn a point for each personally-enrolled member you help advance in rank (Consultant, Star Consultant, and Executive).

Week's Active

- Earn a point for each commission week that your active rank remains at Star Consultant or higher.

FORMULA TO CALCULATE TOTAL MONTHLY GROWTH:

$$\begin{aligned} &2x \text{ (Cycle Growth [automatic 1pt]) } \times \\ &\text{ (Personally Enrolled Growth) } \times \\ &\text{ (Personally Enrolled Rank Advancements) } \times \\ &\text{ (Weeks' Active) } = \\ &\text{Total Monthly Growth.} \end{aligned}$$

Did you know that many of our Leaders and Millionaires got where they are now because they showed consistent growth in these areas? Stay consistent and grow your business and be on your way to becoming our next Millionaire. Make it your goal to have the most growth points on a monthly basis and receive special recognition at our Celebration event.
